

I strongly oppose changes regarding the prioritization of LPFM over Repeater stations. The station I listen to, (K-Love), almost exclusively, could be taken over by a LPFM station. In the Memphis area there is only one Christian Music stations available and this change could allow it to be displaced. It is already hard enough to find decent programming because of some of the filth over the airways, this would only prevent many moral stations from continuing.